WINEMAKER NOTES

It always impresses me how wonderfully aromatic Rieslings are, and our Dry Riesling does not disappoint. The first impression is one of sweetness, not of sugar, but floral aromas of honeysuckle and jasmine. Then, as the wine glides over your tongue, the sensation becomes that of fruit salad with green apple, pear, and white peach with a hint of key lime. Extraordinarily refreshing and, if history repeats itself, I'll be enjoying this wine on the deck after scorching hot summer days yet to come.

2021 Dry Riesling

Columbia Valley

Wine Lore: When the Washington wine industry began to reestablish in the 1970s and 1980s, Riesling ruled the roost for whites. The grape is well suited to the climatic conditions of central Washington. As the wine industry grew, other whites gained a lot of ground and, following our colleagues in California, Chardonnay took the lead. However, Riesling has held it's place as the second most planted and produced white in the state. One sip of this crisp, clean wine will remind you why.
